Narrative
On December 3, 2016, at approximately 1715 hours, I, Corporal Brandon Haygood, responded to the area of North Peterson Avenue and East Leon Street in reference to a traffic accident. Upon arrival, driver # 1 advised she was in an accident and the other vehicle had left the location. According to driver # 1, she though she was in the left hand lane of North Peterson Avenue attempting to turn left into Kentucky Fried Chicken. She later realized she was in the middle lane. When she went to turn left, she struck vehicle # 2's passenger's door. She advised both vehicles stopped on East Leon Street. According to her, there were two black males in the vehicle. The driver asked if they could exchange numbers because they had to leave. When she called for the police, the males left the location. The vehicle was described as a grey in color Mercury Grand Marquis. It was said to be missing the grill and to have hood damage from a previous accident.
